Submission Details

Doctoral Colloquium

How to apply
Submit a summary of your research proposal (maximum 5 pages, single-spaced) including: Your name, email address, university affiliation, PhD area/discipline, and number of years in your PhD programme. The title of your thesis/proposal. A brief description of the main components of your research thesis/proposal. A statement confirming that you are (or will become, by the conference registration date at the latest) a member of both ANZIBA and the Academy of International Business (AIB). Submission method: Email your application to anzibaaiboevent@gmail.com.

Early-Career Researchers Day

How to apply
Submit a one-page application including: A brief résumé outlining your PhD details, current position, research interests, courses taught, and any academic service roles. Three to five questions you would like to discuss regarding your academic career or academia more broadly. A statement confirming that you are (or will become, by the conference registration date at the latest) a member of both ANZIBA and the Academy of International Business (AIB). Submission method: Email your application to anzibaaiboevent@gmail.com.

Places are limited to 12 participants.

Mid-Career Researchers Day

How to apply
Submit a one-page application including: A brief résumé outlining your current position and institution, years of academic experience, research interests, courses taught, and any citizenship, service, or leadership roles. A short paragraph describing your motivation for participating in the Mid-Career Researchers Day. A statement confirming that you are (or will become, by the conference registration date at the latest) a member of both ANZIBA and the Academy of International Business (AIB). Submission method: Email your application to anzibaaiboevent@gmail.com.

Places are limited to 12 participants.

Education Scholars Day

This one-day workshop is designed specifically for education-focused academics and provides practical guidance for developing a sustainable Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) research agenda, navigating teaching-focused academic career pathways, and translating innovative teaching practice into peer-reviewed publications.

How to apply
Submit a one-page application including: A paragraph outlining your teaching and learning philosophy, current classroom challenges, and three to five questions you have about your career or academia more broadly. A brief résumé including your PhD details, current position, courses taught, and any academic service roles. A statement confirming that you are (or will become, by the conference registration date at the latest) a member of both ANZIBA and the Academy of International Business (AIB). Submission method: Email your application to anzibaaiboevent@gmail.com.

Places are limited to 25 participants.